

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

AN ACT
TO AMEND
THE CHARTER
OF THE
CITY OF NEW-YORK.

PASSED APRIL 7, 1830.—CH. 122.

The People of the State of New-York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:—

1. The legislative power of the Corporation of the City of New-York, shall be vested in a Board of Aldermen and a Board of Assistants, who together shall form the Common Council of the City.

2. Each Ward of the City shall be entitled to elect one person to be denominated the Alderman of the Ward, and the persons so chosen, together shall form the Board of Aldermen; and each Ward shall also be entitled to elect one person to be denominated an Assistant Alderman; and the persons so chosen, together shall form the Board of Assistants.

3. The Aldermen and Assistant Aldermen shall be chosen for one year; and no person shall be eligible to either office, who shall not, at the time of his election, be a resident of the Ward for which he is chosen.

4. The annual election for the Charter Officers shall commence on the second Tuesday in April, and the officers elected shall be sworn into office on the second Tuesday in May thereafter; and all the provisions of law now in force in regard to the notification, duration, and conduct of elections for Members of Assembly, and in regard to the appointment, powers, and duties of the inspectors, holding the same, shall apply to the annual election of Charter Officers.

5. The first election for Charter Officers, after the passage of this law, shall take place on the second Tuesday in April, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one; and all those persons who shall have been elected under the former laws regulating the election of Charter Officers, and shall be in office at the time of the passage of this law, shall continue in office until the officers elected under this law shall be entitled to be sworn into office.

6. The Board of Aldermen shall have power to direct a special election to be held, to supply the place of an Alderman whose seat shall become vacant by death, removal from the City, resignation, or otherwise; and the Board of Assistants shall also have power to direct a special election to supply any vacancy that may occur in the Board of Assistants; and in both cases, the person elected to supply the vacancy shall hold his seat only for the residue of the term of office of his immediate predecessor.

7. The Boards shall meet in separate chambers, and a majority of each shall be a quorum to do business. Each Board shall appoint a President from its own body, and shall also choose its Clerk and other officers, determine the rules of its own proceedings, and be the judge of the qualifications of its own members. Each Board shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and the doors of each shall be kept open, except when the public welfare shall require secrecy; and all resolutions and reports of Committees which shall recommend any specific improvement involving the appropriation of public moneys, or taxing or assessing the citizens of said city, shall be published immediately after the adjournment of the Board, under the authority of the Common Council, in all the newspapers employed by the Corporation; and whenever a vote is taken in relation thereto, the ayes and noes shall be called and published in the same manner.

8. Each Board shall have the authority to compel the attendance of absent members; to punish its members for disorderly behavior, and to expel a member with the concurrence of two-thirds of the members elected to the Board; and the members so expelled, shall, by such expulsion, forfeit all his right and powers as an Alderman or Assistant Alderman.

9. The stated and occasional meetings of each Board of the Common Council, shall be regulated by its own ordinances; and both Boards may meet on the same or on different days, as they may severally judge expedient.

10. Any law, ordinance, or resolution of the Common Council may originate in either Board, and when it shall have passed one Board, may be rejected or amended by the other.

11. No member of either Board shall, during the period for which he was elected, be appointed to, or be competent to hold any office of which the emoluments are paid from the City treasury, or by fees, directed to be paid by any ordinance or act of the Common Council, or be directly or indirectly interested in any contract, the expenses or consideration whereof are to be paid under any ordinance of the Common Council; but this section shall not be construed to deprive any Alderman or Assistant of any emolument or fees which he is entitled to by virtue of his office.

12. Every act, ordinance or resolution, which shall have passed two Boards of the Common Council, before it shall take effect, sh presented, duly certified, to the Mayor of the City, for his approbation. If he approve, he shall sign it; if not, he shall return it with his objections, to the Board in which it originated, within ten days thereafter; or if such Board be not then in session, at its next stated meeting. The Board to which it shall be returned, shall enter the objections at large on their journal, and cause the same to be published in one or more of the public newspapers of the City.

13. The Board to which such act, ordinance, or resolution, has been so returned, shall, after the expiration of not less than ten days thereafter, proceed to reconsider the same. If, after such reconsideration, a majority of the members elected to the Board shall agree to pass the same, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other Board, by which it shall be likewise reconsidered; and if approved by a majority of all the members elected to such Board, it shall take effect as an act or law of the Corporation. In all such cases the votes of both Boards shall be determined by ayes and noes, and the names of the persons voting for and against the passage of the measure reconsidered, shall be entered on the journal of each Board respectively.

14. If the Mayor shall not return any act, ordinance, or resolution so presented to him, within the time above limited for that purpose, it shall take effect in the same manner as if he had signed it.

15. Neither the Mayor nor Recorder of the City of New-York shall be a member of the Common Council thereof, after the second Tuesday of May, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one.

16. Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Mayor, and whenever the Mayor shall be absent from the City, or be prevented by sickness, or any other cause, from attending to the duties of his office, the President of the Board of Aldermen shall act as Mayor, and shall possess all the rights and powers of the Mayor, during the continuance of such vacancy, absence, or disability.

17. It shall be the duty of the Mayor—

FIRST. To communicate to the Common Council, at least once a year, and oftener if he shall deem it expedient, a general statement of the situation and condition of the City, in relation to its government, finances, and improvements.

SECOND. To recommend to the adoption of the Common Council all such measures connected with the police, security, health, cleanliness, and ornament of the City, and the improvement of its government and finances, as he shall deem expedient.

THIRD. To be vigilant and active in causing the laws and ordinances of the government of the City to be duly executed and enforced.

FOURTH. To exercise a constant supervision and control over the conduct and acts of all subordinate officers, and to receive and examine into all such complaints as may be preferred against any of them for violation or neglect of duty, and generally to perform all such duties as may be prescribed to him by the charter and city ordinances, and the laws of this State and the United States.

18. Annual and occasional appropriations shall be made by proper ordinances of the Common Council for every branch and object of City expenditure, nor shall any money be drawn from the City treasury except the same shall have been previously appropriated to the purposes for which it was drawn.

19. The Common Council shall not have authority to borrow any sums of money whatever on the credit of the Corporation, except in anticipation of the revenue of the year in which such loan shall be made, unless authorized by a special act of the Legislature.

20. It shall be the duty of the Common Council to publish, two months before the annual election of Charter Officers, in each year, for the general information of the citizens of New-York, a full and detailed statement of the receipts and expenditures of the Corporation during the year ending on the first day of the month in which such publication was made; and in every such statement the different sources of City revenue, and the amount received from each; the several appropriations made by the Common Council, the objects for which the same were made, and the amount of moneys expended under each; the moneys borrowed on the credit of the Corporation, the authority under which each loan was made, and the terms on which the same was obtained, shall be clearly and particularly specified.

21. The executive business of the Corporation of New-York, shall hereafter be performed by distinct departments, which it shall be the duty of the Common Council to organize and appoint for that purpose.

22. It shall be the duty of the Common Council to provide for the accountability of all officers and other persons to whom the receipt or expenditure of the funds of the City shall be intrusted, by requiring from them sufficient security for the performance of their duties or trust, which security shall be annually renewed; but the security first taken shall remain in force until new security shall be given.

23. The Clerk of the Board of Aldermen shall, by virtue of his office, be Clerk of the Common Council, and shall perform all the duties heretofore performed by the Clerk of the Common Council, except such as shall be assigned to the Clerk of the Board of Assistant Aldermen, and it shall be his duty to keep open for inspection, at all reasonable times, the records and minutes of the proceedings of the Common Council, except such as shall be specially ordered otherwise.

TRUSTEES' REPORT.TO THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The Trustees of the Fire Department, in conformity with its requirements, have the honor to submit to your consideration the following statement of their proceedings for the past year, and avail themselves, in general terms, of expressing their gratification at the success which has attended their efforts in administering the charities of the Department during the period indicated. They regret, however, to state, that although husbanding the resources of the Department to their utmost, they have been unable to increase the Permanent Fund beyond the amount reported last year; but have, notwithstanding, afforded adequate aid to all having just claims upon them.

The resources of the Department have considerably diminished, in consequence of a falling off in the amount heretofore annually collected from Powder and Chimney Fires; also in the contributions received from the Insurance Companies and for Certificate money. It was thought expedient by the Trustees, last year, to dispense with the Concerts which have been given, owing to the frequent movements that have been made in such matters—the public being apparently wearied with our continued appeals. It is to be hoped however, that inasmuch as we have not importuned our benevolent citizens for some time past, that we can confidently look to them for such aid during the coming year, as will make ample amends for past omissions.

The Treasurer reports that there was remaining in his hands last year, a balance of Nine Hundred and Twenty-one Dollars and ten cents; since which time he has received from various sources, Eight Thousand Nine Hundred and Forty-six Dollars and nineteen cents, and for Bond cancelled, Three Thousand Five Hundred Dollars; which in the aggregate, amounts to Thirteen Thousand Three Hundred and Sixty-seven Dollars and twenty-nine cents. Out of which there has been disbursed in pensions, and various deeds of charity to claimants upon the Department, the sum of Eight Thousand Five Hundred and Eighty-nine Dollars and forty-two cents; re-invested, Three Thousand Five Hundred Dollars—leaving a balance deposited in the Butchers' and Drovers' Bank, to the credit of the Department, of One Thousand Two Hundred and Seventy-seven Dollars and eighty-seven cents. The Permanent Fund now amounts to Thirty-seven Thousand Two Hundred and Fifteen Dollars and twenty-five cents, which is invested as follows, viz: Loaned on Bond and Mortgage, Thirty-six Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-five Dollars and Twenty-five cents; and Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars in Manhattan Bank Stock.

The Permanent Fund, you are aware, only nets about Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars; while the calls upon our charity have required for the last few years, some Ten Thousand Dollars per annum. Our Pension List now numbers about Two Hundred Widows, each of whom receive regularly Twenty-five Dollars per annum, making Five Thousand Dollars. We have numerous calls, also, for special donations, frequently much more pressing than the regular pensioners. In addition to this, we furnish to the Widows about one hundred tons of Coal during the winter; also, to Widows, Orphans, &c., about one thousand pairs of Shoes. This Fund having been established for over half a century, its requirements are well known to the public, and we trust that the efficient aid of the wealthy citizens of our great commercial mart, will not permit the Trustees to turn a deaf ear to any needy applicant for relief.

In the last annual report, after the condition of the Charitable Fund had been set forth, attention was very properly drawn to the fact, that no bequests had ever been made to it, to enable those entrusted with its management to enlarge its usefulness; and this, too, in a city distinguished for its opulence, its liberality, and the frequency with which such benevolent expressions are made to kindred institutions. This circumstance cannot be attributed to any well-founded objection, either to the recipients of the Fund, or to the mode in which it has been administered. In the one case, no pretence has ever been made that every dollar has not been faithfully appropriated and accounted for; while, on the other hand, we can point with just feelings of pride, to a charity which is not restrained within the limits of sect or creed; which is not bestowed upon vice or infamy, but encircles in its embrace, relief to the indigent and the distressed widow and orphan, who have no ordinary claims but such as arise from the services and sacrifices of their deceased husbands or parents, rendered in defence of the homes and firesides of our citizens. No more appropriate or grateful offering

* Note.—In March, 1815, Mr. Clinton was removed by the Council of Appointment, and John Ferguson, Esq., appointed Mayor. Mr. Ferguson then being Naval Officer of the Customs, was required by the President to state which of the two offices he would hold. By the advice of friends he resigned the Mayoralty in June following, when the Council appointed Jacob Radcliffe, Esq., in his place. Mr. Ferguson held the Naval Office to the time of his death, in September, 1832. There being no minutes of this change in the books of the Common Council, the above is furnished for the Compiler by a friend.

NEW YORK POST OFFICE.

ROBERT H. MORRIS, POSTMASTER.

MARCEWA MENSON, Jr., Deputy.

Location.

The Post Office is situated in Nassau Street, extending from Liberty to Cedar. Entrance from Cedar and Nassau streets. Mails received and delivered on Liberty street.

Office Hours.

From 8 A. M. to 7 P. M.

SUNDAY.

From 9 to 10 A. M., and from 12½ to 1½ P. M.

Rates of Postage.

LETTERS.

Single Letters, 300 miles or under, 5 cents.	Over 300 miles, 10 cents.
Double " " " 10	" " 20 "
Treble " " " 15	" " 30 "
Quadruple " " " 20	" " 40 "

Drop Letters for delivery only 2 cents.

Advertised Letters to be charged with the cost of advertising the same, 4 cents each, in addition to the regular postage.

PRINTED MATTER.

Newspapers of the size of 1900 square inches or less, sent beyond 30 miles from the place of printing, and not more than 100 miles, 1 cent each—over 100 miles 1½ cents each. Within the State where published, any distance, 1 cent.

Newspapers of greater size than 1900 square inches, and all pamphlets, gazettes, and periodicals, 2½ cents for each copy of not more than one ounce weight, and one cent additional for each additional ounce, or fractional excess of not less than half an ounce, for any distance in the United States.

Any manuscript communication whatever, connected with a newspaper, pamphlet, &c., beyond the direction, makes the same liable to letter postage.

All printed or lithographed circulars and handbills, or advertisements, or quarto post, or single cap paper, or paper not larger than single cap folded, directed, and unscaled, 3 cents each, and must be prepaid, for any distance in the United States.

There are about 40,000 letters passing through the hands of the clerks daily, for City delivery, those sent out and for distribution to all parts of the United States, each one has to be stamped, bundled and mailed, and great care is required.

We send out about 80,000 papers daily, each one handled and principally received from editors for distribution, about 15,000 are also received for City delivery, and require to be boxed up or sent out by carriers.

The people generally have but a small idea of the amount of labor performed in the Post Office, a letter has to go through many hands before it reaches its destination; it frequently happens that letters are misdirected, and the Post Office blamed if they are not received.

We send about 20,000 dead Letters to the dead letter office at Washington each quarter, those containing money and mailed here, are returned to the proper owners if found.

The Post Office is never closed, clerks commence duty at 5 A. M., the year round, and are on duty until 7, they are then relieved by the night clerks.

THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE

THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE.

ERECTED IN 1790—TAKEN DOWN IN 1815.

THE annexed view is a correct representation of the GOVERNMENT HOUSE, taken from a large lithographic print, handsomely got up and colored, for a parlor picture, published by Mr. H. R. Robinson, No. 142 Nassau street; where copies of the same may be obtained by those who are fond of relics of "the olden time."

The original drawing from which Mr. Robinson's engraving was taken, was made by Milbourne, an English artist, in 1797. He was from London in 1792, and was scene painter for the Park Theatre.

The Government House was erected at the expense of the State of New-York, and was used for the residence of the Governor of the State; for a time it was occupied by John Jay and George Clinton, while holding the Executive office. From 1799 until 1815, it was used for the Custom House of this port. Previous to the former year, the Custom House was located in Front, near Broad street.

In 1815 the building was taken down, and the site sold for building lots, by order of the Common Council of the city, the Corporation having adopted measures for purchasing the building and site in 1805. The lots sold for $164,783, and produced a net gain to the city of over $80,000, which was owing to the good management of the late Thomas R. Mercein, who was then Comptroller.

The Government House was a handsome brick edifice, situated at the foot of Broadway, fronting the Bowling Green, where the row of elegant dwellings now owned by Stephen Whitney and others now stand. It occupied the grounds where formerly the Dutch and English Forts, and subsequently the Revolutionary works, were located.

DISCOVERY AND EARLY SETTLEMENT.

CURIOUS is the account given of this country by Hudson, in 1609, when he discovered the same. I have only extracts from it as published by Hartges, in 1642, in Dutch.

"In the year 1609, April 6th, O. S., Captain Henry Hudson, an experienced English Pilot, but then in the service of the East India Company of the United States of Holland, left the Texelina vessel, called the Halfmoon, navigated by twenty men, Dutch and English. He doubled the coast of Norway, and made towards Nova Zembla; but being impeded by the great cold and the ice, he formed a resolution of visiting the coast of America.

July 8th, they arrived on the coast in latitude 44° and were obliged to make a harbor in order to get a new foremast, having lost their old. They found the natives kind, and willing to trade with them for different kinds of furs, upon the most profitable terms. They found here also the greatest quantity of Codfish. Hudson's men not using the natives well, but taking their effects from them without paying for them, a quarrel ensued, and Hudson was obliged to put to sea again. He afterwards made land, August 3d, latitude 42°; and coasting from Cape Cod westward, they arrived at Sandy Hook, latitude 40° 30', September 12th, 1609.

Finding a good entrance and harbor, they came to anchor behind the Hook and sent their boat to what is called Coney Island. This island they found to be chiefly a soil of white sand, such as was uncommon to them; they also found here a vast number of plum trees, loaded with fruit, and many of them surrounded and covered with grape vines of different kinds. There was also the greatest plenty of snipes, and other birds, along the shores and in the trees.

While the ship lay at anchor, the natives came on board from the Jersey shore, and traded very fair; giving in exchange for trifles furs and skins of foxes, martins, &c. They brought also birds, fruit, white and blue grapes; and what was remarkable, they had on their wrists and feet copper rings.

"Upon my going on shore," says Hudson, "after coming to anchor in the bay within the Hook, I found the natives standing along the shore, and singing according to their manner, clothed in the skins of elks, foxes, and other animals, dressed by them. Their food I found to be turkey corn, (indian corn, maize,) which is well tasted, and good to eat. They came often on board the vessel after this in their canoes; made of a yellow wood; their arms I find to be bows and arrows, with sharp stones at the end, fastened with pitch. Those I saw on shore had no houses, but slept in the open air, some on mats of straw sewed together, some on the leaves of the trees. They brought all their goods with them, especially food, and wild tobacco, which is strong in taste and good to chew; they appeared to be a friendly people, but are much inclined to steal, and are very cunning in carrying away any thing they take a liking to."

It is very remarkable that wherever mankind has been discovered in a state of nature, this evil disposition of stealing from strangers has always been found natural to them.

Hudson, discovering that the bay was the mouth of an extensive river, and taking his course north-east, with his boat ahead to make the soundings, proceeded up; and on turning the point of the Narrows, the boat unexpectedly met with seven canoes of Indians, who, being surprised and frightened, shot at the people in the boat, and killed one of them named John Coleman, and then made off as fast as they could, whence it was expected that this first instance of hostility would have broke off all intercourse with the natives; but the next day they came on board, and traded as freely as if nothing had happened.

After the vessel had passed the Narrows, they found a very fine bay, and in this bay, at that time, five islands, the one called Nutton Island on account of the great quantity of nut trees growing on the same; the other four islands lay near the west shore, and were not so large. [N. B. Only two of these islands are now remaining, but the rocks where the others lay are to be seen at low water.] On the point of land where New-York is built, they found living a very hostile people, who would not deal or traffic with them; but those who lived on the western shore, from the Kills upward, came on board the vessel while it lay at anchor in the river, bringing with them to barter furs and skins of different kinds, and the largest and finest oysters they ever beheld, also indian corn, beans, pumpkins, squashes, grapes and some apples, all of which they exchanged for trifles.

Hudson proceeded with his boat up the North River, by him called the Great River, and since known by the name of Hudson River; and as he went up, he all the way found the natives on the west shore more affable and friendly than those on the eastern shore ; and he also ascertained that on one side of the river the natives were at war with those of the other side. He went up without molestation, (as far as he judged that he could go with the ship, and then took to his boat to explore the river higher up.) In his journal he gives the following account of his reception at landing in latitude  $42^{\circ} 15'$  :

"I went on shore," he says, "in one of their canoes, with an old man who was chief of forty men and women, whom I found in a house made of the bark of trees, and was exceeding smooth and well finished within all round about. I found there a great quantity of indian corn and beans, and indeed there lay to dry near the house of those articles as much as would load three ships, beside what was still growing on the field. When we went to the house, two mats were spread to sit on, and immediately eatables were brought to us in wooden bowls, well made ; and two men were sent off with their bows and arrows to kill wild fowl, who soon returned with two pigeons. They also killed immediately a fat dog, and in a little time skinned it with shells they got out of the water. They expected I would have remained with them through the night ; but this I did not care to do, and therefore went on board the ship again.

"It is the finest land for tilling my feet ever trod on, and also of all sorts of trees fit for building vessels, &c. The natives were exceedingly kind and good tempered, for when they saw that I was making ready to return to the ship, and would not stay with them, judging that it proceeded out of fear for their bows and arrows, they took them and broke them into pieces, and threw them into the fire." He found growing here also grapes, plums, pumpkins and other fruit.

Hudson, while on shore with the Indians where Albany is now built, was very kindly treated by them, and got in exchange from them very valuable furs for trifles. He was invited by signs to come and settle in the country which they showed was at their service. In turning down the river, when they had got in or through the highlands, the Indians in their canoes being around the ship, one of them climbed up by the stern ladder to the window, and took from thence several articles, but being seen by the mate who shot at and killed him, all the Indians hastened to the shores, nor could any of them be prevailed upon to come on board again ; the alarm had extended quite down the Jersey shore, and put an end to their former friendly intercourse, and obliged Hudson to put to sea, October 4th, 1609. He arrived at Dartmouth, England, Nov. 4, 1609, and from there he wrote to the Dutch East India Company who had employed him, and transmitted his journals, and the account of his discoveries to them, and in consequence of these accounts the Company sent another ship to Hudson River to trade in 1610. The Company, no doubt, from the account given by Hudson, of the hostile disposition of the natives residing along the lower part of the river, and the friendly disposition of those residing near where Albany is built, and also on account of the greater quantity of furs to be obtained, were induced to fix their first trading place there ; and in 1614 they obtained permission of the natives to build a small fort on an island lying a little below Albany on the west side. It was a redoubt with a ditch around it 18 feet wide : it had two brass guns and eleven iron ones mounted, and was defended by twelve soldiers ; the commandant's name was Hendrick Christiaens, and the lieutenant, Jaques Elikins. The nation of Indians who resided near here were called Mohocks, and those on the east side of the river,

Mohicanders. The advantages derived to the Mohocks by their trade with the Dutch, induced all the other nations to allow them a free trade and intercourse, which was advantageous and encouraging to the Company, by extending their possessions and trade, and being desirous to secure them to themselves, they sent orders, in 1623, to build forts near the limits of their possessions. They accordingly built Fort Goodhope on Connecticut river, 35 miles from its mouth, near where New Haven now stands, Fort Nassau on the east side of Delaware Bay, Fort New Amsterdam on the island Manhattan, now New York, and Fort Orange at Albany.

This state, when under the jurisdiction of the Dutch West India Company, did not prosper as fast as the goodness of the soil, and the advantages of trade would lead us to expect; few emigrants leaving Holland for these parts, except those who came in a military capacity, or as merchants or factors under the Company, or civil officers of government. It was customary with the Company to let out or grant lands to such as had served out the time contracted for. Bergen and several other places were settled by disbanded soldiers. In 1660 the town of Bushwick, on Long Island, was begun, and in 1662 it contained 25 houses.

At this time the small towns in the state were surrounded by palisades, to prevent surprise from the Indians, and few farmers were settled at any distance from the towns or fortifications: and hence the people of Connecticut were emboldened to settle in the neighborhood of Fort Goodhope, near Hartford, and at length grew so numerous and insolent as to quarrel with and dispossess several of the Dutch farmers.

BURGOMASTERS AND SCHEPENS.

Joost Carles, plaintiff, contra Michiel De Kerman, defendant.
The defendant 1 default.

---

Hendrick Tamboer, (Hendrick Hendrickson, drummer.) plaintiff, contra
Antony Lodewycksen, defendant.
The defendant 1 default.

---

Davidt Provoost, plaintiff, contra Joost Carlesen, defendant.
The plaintiff demands the payment of 8" school money.
The defendant confesses the debt; but says that Michiel Paulisen has deducted the same from his rent, and had thought all along, that it had been paid.
The parties having been heard, the defendant is condemned to pay the plaintiff his demand.

Egbert Wautersen, plaintiff, contra Jacob Van Conwenhoven, defendant.
The defendant 1 default.

---

Tomas Adamsen, plaintiff, contra Pieter Jacobsen, lieutenant of Captain
Geurt Tysen, defendant.

The plaintiff declares that about two years since, having arrived in the West Indies, he delivered out of his vessel to Captain Geurt Tysen certain provisions and other things appearing by attestation, with the promise that he should be paid, and setting fire to his bark, Captain Geurt Tysen promised to give him in the place thereof, the first vessel he should capture; and since none of this has been fulfilled, he requests that the defendant, as the lieutenant and agent of Captain Tysen, shall be condemned to satisfy him.

The defendant says, that he has nothing to do with him; until he has shown to him the act and handwriting of the Captain, he is ignorant what agreement the captain has entered into with him, and whether his claim may not have been satisfied, maintaining that in case he had any claim, since the captain had put up a public notice and called upon every one to present his claim, that they ought to have been presented.

The parties having been heard on either side, the plaintiff is for the present debarred from his claim upon the lieutenant, but as it is according to law, he may institute his suit against the captain, or the person whom, before his departure, he had made his attorney.

Whereas Captain Jan Jacobsen, according to the order of the Burgomasters and Schepens, in the matter of his dispute as defendant contra Jan Jough, (J. Jansen, Jr.) on this date has given in his answer; therefore having examined the same, the Court ordains that two persons shall be commissioned out of their board, by arbitration to bring the dispute to a settlement, whereunto are commissioned their lordships Paulus L. Vandiegrist and Pieter Conwenhoven.

The suppliant has his prayer granted, on his paying the legal excise, and the Lord the Governor General, whose servant he is, has no objections thereto.

On the Petition of N. Terhaer, for permission again to Tap, this Apostille:

The suppliant's comportment and his proffered promises, will induce the Court hereafter to attend to his prayer; but as yet his request for permission to Tap is denied.

Augen Jansen and Cristyaen Barentsen, Carpenters, being cited to appear in Court, respecting the cabinet work of a sepulchre which they have made, and which has fallen down.

Taking into consideration, that the said work has been demolished by the hard rain, and water, the Burgomasters and Schepens therefore agree that the carpenters shall rebuild, and put all in good repair, (together with two men to help in digging) for the sum of 32 guilders, provided that all be well done, and suitably repaired.

To their High and Mighty Lords, the Director General, and the High Councillors of New Netherland:

The Burgomasters and Schepens of the City of New Amsterdam, with all due reverence and obedience, by these presents beg leave to make known, how that, on July 21st, 1654, being assembled Collegialiter, at the call of the Director General, when in the presence of two ecclesiastical ministers, Dominus Megapolensis and Driesius, his high mightiness called our attention to the letter of their High and Mighty Lords the Directors of the Chamber of Holland, Lords and Patrooms of these provinces of New Netherland, and to what was their desire; and being admonished to forget all that had ever passed heretofore, and to live in future in all friendship; to which both parties agreed. At the same time the Governor General delivered to the Burgomasters and Schepens the missive sent by the Mighty Lords the Majores, addressed to the Burgomasters and Schepens, according to which we are determined to regulate ourselves, and to fulfil all that is contained therein.

The Director General and the High Councillors have also been pleased, in a certain letter of August 4th, 1654, partially to reprove us for certain omissions, and to urge upon us the great necessity to devise some means of subsistence, out of which, Polity, Religion, and the Militia (which have lately come out from father land, and some more expected) may be maintained and supported: and to make provision for the payment the college of Burgomasters and Schepens, their High Mightinesses intended to lay upon all real estate a tax of the one hundredth penning; and whereas on the 10th of August last was submitted to the Director General an act wherein they engage to raise for their quota the sum of three thousand guilders, with this condition, that they may raise some revenue from the real estate; therefore they have once for all (at last) levied upon the hundredth penning, to be raised from the real estate within the jurisdiction of this court, trusting that your High Mightinesses will not thereunto be opposed.

Done in the Session of the Burgomasters and Schepens (Martin Krieger and Willem Beeckman absent) at New Amsterdam Stadt House, this 31st August, 1654.

STADT HOUSE, Monday, August 31st, 1654.

Present, their Lordships,

ARENT VAN HATTEM,
P. L. VANDIEGRIST,
PIETER VAN CONWENHOVEN,
OLOFF STEVENSEN,
C. VAN TIENHOVEN, (Schout.)

The wives of Mr. Jacob and Mr. Hans Cirngypes appeared in Court and declared a certain arrest, under Jacob Van Conwenhoven, of the wife of Mr. Jacob for the sum of 194 guilders, and the wife of Mr. Hans (for the sum of) 12 guilders, which were coming to them from Richert Bolleck, according to obligation; they request that the arrest may be declared valuable; and the Burgomasters and Schepens having examined the writings, do declare the arrest valuable.

Tomas Stevenson, plaintiff, contra Tomas Hall, defendant.

The plaintiff prays by petition, that the defendant as attorney of Jan Robbins, of Connecticut, shall pay and credit him the freight of his bark, with ten years' interest, the interest being £7 sterling, which in the arbitration of the Commissioners has not been disputed or rejected.

The defendant states that he has no powers in relation to the claim of the plaintiff, and that he is ignorant of the matter, but says in case the plaintiff can prove by the handwriting of Robbins that this is coming to him, he engages to credit and satisfy the same, giving the plaintiff yet one month from this date, when the verdict of the arbitrators will expire, to prove his claim.

The parties having been heard, the Burgomasters and Schepens do order that Tomas Stevenson shall produce proof that Jan Robbins has not yet paid for the freight of his sloop, when a further disposition shall be made of the matter; for which there is given to him the time of ten weeks from this date to prove the same; or in failure of producing proof in that time, he shall be held to pay in full the verdict of the arbitrators.

Hendrick Hendricksen Tamboer, (drummer,) plaintiff, contra Antony Lode-wycksen, defendant.

The defendant 2 default.

---

Joost Carelse, plaintiff, contra Mary De Karmen, defendant.

The plaintiff demands the payment of 8 g., which he is condemned to pay to D. Provoot, and which was deducted from his rent.

The defendant says that he paid Joost, the plaintiff, his rent in full according to receipt; and that he paid 8 guilders school money himself in the presence of the plaintiff.

The Burgomasters and Schepens order that the parties shall appear at the next court day with D. Provoot, Sen., so that he may be heard on the subject.

Greetie Waemans, plaintiff, contra Daniel D'Silla, defendant.

The plaintiff declares that the defendant promised to marry her, and that she holds the marriage ring of the defendant, which she received thereon, together with two different letters written by him to her, dated May 11th and June 10th last, and that "he has lain in bed with her." Requests that the defendant be condemned to legally marry her.

The defendant confesses the promise, but he did in "drunkenness;" and says that he has written no couple of letters to her, but yet confesses the same is his hand writing.

The parties having been heard, the court orders that a copy of the letters written to the plaintiff be granted to the defendant, to answer there-to at the next court day.

Tomas Applegate, plaintiff, contra William Harck, defendant.

The plaintiff requests, as grandfather of the child of Tomas Farring-ton, that the defendant shall deliver up to him the goods and chattels, which he, as Curateur of the said child, has in his possession, according to the sentence of the Director General and Council.

The defendant states that he is one of three persons chosen and appointed as guardians that ought to have been called together, and offers to give over what he has in his possession, belonging to the child, to the plaintiff, provided that Applegate shall give sufficient security for the faithful administration of the property.

The parties having been heard, it is ordered by the court that Applegate may cite Harck and the other guardians to appear at the next court day; and in case they are all willing to give up to Applegate or have good reasons for refusing, then shall Applegate be held to give sufficient security for the faithful administration of the same.

Tomas Wandel, plaintiff, contra Mr. Roo, defendant.

The defendants 1 default.

Jan Aryaensen, plaintiff, Joost Goderisen, defendant.
The defendant 1 default.

---

Tounis Krazy, plaintiff, contra Jan Van Bocksel.

The plaintiff demands the payment of about 50 guilders, for having let be made one suit of clothes with its appurtenances.

The defendant acknowledges the debt, but says that he had hired himself to the plaintiff for 90 guilders a year, and that he was dismissed from his service in the winter, and makes a claim for one half the wages for a year.

The plaintiff says that he put him out of his house for good reasons.

The defendant wished to know the reasons, which he was ordered to mention.

Whereupon the plaintiff states, that the defendant, according to her declaration, had on a Sunday, during divine service, thrown his little daughter on the bed, and had attempted to commit a rape on her; and if the daughter had not screamed, and there had been no dread of alarm, would have accomplished his object, all which the defendant denies.

It is ordered, that the officer shall take recognizance of the matter, and in the mean time the parties are ordered to bring their specifications of accounts, and show how their agreement was made.

Jan Cornelisen C'yn, plaintiff, contra Geurt Coerten, defendant.

The plaintiff demands for carpenter's work and sundries, according to account, the payment of the balance being g. 17 12.

The defendant says that the work is not yet finished, and when the same is done he offers to pay him what he owes; maintains that it is now only 10 guilders.

It is ordered by the court, that Jan Cornelisen shall finish his work, and that Geurt Coerten shall then pay him in full all that is coming to him.

Hendrick Jansen Smùh, plaintiff, contra Ritchert Bulleek, defendant.

The plaintiff's wife present.

The defendant absent first time.

Roelof Jansen, plaintiff, contra Jan Gerritsen defendant.

Both default.

Philip Gerardy, plaintiff, contra Lodewyck Pos, defendant.

The defendant 1 default.

At the session of the Burgomasters and Schepens, it is resolved and decided, that both the Burgomasters and Schepens shall draw upon and receive of the excise each for 100 guilders towards the reducing (payment) of their salaries; and Jacob Kip is directed to pay to each member of the court 100 guilders.

Done, &c., as above.

The plaintiff asks for Lourens Heyn the payment of 30 guilders, and for himself g. 12 15, for Willem Hook, g. 48, for sails sold to him and delivered, amounting to g. 92 10.

The defendant answers that Willem Hook himself promised to pay and fully to satisfy: second, that Lourens Heyn has been paid through his wife: third, with respect to the plaintiff's demand on his own account being g. 12 15, he says that he has delivered to him several years ago a canoe for it, and that he is not indebted to him. But yet if the plaintiff will take upon himself to say that he has not been paid, then in such case he will satisfy him.

The plaintiff takes upon himself to say that he has not been paid.

Whereupon it is ordered, that Teunis Krazy shall pay to the plaintiff the sum of g. 12 15, his own due. The 48 guilders in favor of W. Hook shall be paid to Pieter Jacobsen as attorney, upon taking a receipt and copy of procuration. And with respect to the demand for Lourens Heyn, the wife of Teunis Krazy shall testify at the next court day, or prove that Lourens Heyn has been paid.

On this 31st day of August, 1654, appeared before the court their Lordships, Paulus Leenderson Vandiegrist, and Pieter (Wolffersen) Van Conwenhoven; by the Burgomasters and Schepens of the City of New Amsterdam, appointed commissioners, the disputes concerning the accounts between Captain Jan Jacobsen, Jr., and J. D. Jough, (Jan Jansen, Jr.) to examine, liquidate, and the parties to reconcile, report, that the said Captain Jan Jacobsen, first declared concerning the account by Jan Jough, (Jan Jansen, Jr.,) he knew not how to say anything else than that it is just and upright, whereupon the same is approved in full without the least pretence to any action now or hereafter to be had thereon, but liberate the said Jan Jough from all further actions or claims, by him or any one else in relation to the matter.

In witness whereof, the above minutes have been signed by the aforesaid Captain Jan Jacobsen, together with the aforesaid commissioners, &c.

The Lords, P. L. Vandiegrist and Peter Van Conwenhoven, by the Burgomasters and Schepens of the City of New Amsterdam, appointed commissioners in the matter of difference concerning a certain account of wines sold, to examine and bring the parties to an accommodation: Therefore the said commissioners having heard the parties and the circumstances on either side having been examined, have come to the conclusion that Captain Jan Jacobsen shall be held to pay the cost of this process, (but he shall retain his remedy against Adrian Keyser,) and that Jan Jough shall pay the bill of expenses at this arbitration incurred. All which is thus decided by us, this 31st August, 1654, at New Amsterdam.

Signed,

PIETER WOLFFERSEN.

Attest, JACOB KIPP, Secretary.

We, the undersigned, Captain Jan Jacobsen and Jan Jansen d'Jough, do declare, that with the above verdict of their Lordships, the Commissioners on either side, we are satisfied and we submit to it, promising in the presence of the Lords Commissioners, not any more to think of the dispute that had arisen between us, nor in the least degree to molest one another any more.

In witness whereof, the parties on either side, together with the Lords Commissioners as witnesses, have signed this:

THE CITY HALL.

Whereas the Lords Patroons of this Province have been generously pleased to grant the City Hall to this City, therefore early measures must be taken to repair and line the said house with boards—and whereas it is much incumbered by a quantity of salt deposited therein by Cornelis Schut, and otherwise cannot be conveniently entered before it be emptied of certain goods and lodgers: Therefore their Lordships are of opinion, that Cornelis Schut be seasonably notified by the Messenger, that he provide himself a store house for his salt, and those who lodge therein with other lodgings, so that the City Hall be not wholly ruined by the salt, nor occupied by others. Done the 1st March, 1655, at the Assembly in the City Hall, at Amsterdam, in New Netherland.

On the petition of Jan Rutgersen to sell beer in the City Hall, (where the little sail loft was given him to dwell in,) is endorsed.

Petitioner is permitted to lodge in the City Hall for one month from date, as his house was burned down in the winter; at the expiration of which time the petitioner shall depart. Meanwhile he can look out for another dwelling. Remainder of the petition was denied.

Scout, Burgomasters and Schepens of the City of Amsterdam having caused the above order, (dated 1st March last,) to be legally served on, and communicated to you, Cornelis Schut, whereunto there has been no result, to this time; Therefore, for the preservation of the City Hall, and the needful repair thereof, we warn you again to provide a proper place for your salt, in default whereof we shall be obliged, for the maintenance of the City Hall, to remove the salt at your expense. Hereby you must hold yourself notified for the last time, Done, this 12 April, 1655, in the Assembly at the City Hall, at Amsterdam, in New Netherland.

Ordinance enacted and concluded by the Worshipful Court of this City, relative to the time of appearance of the Schout, Burgomasters and Schepens, both in ordinary and extraordinary meetings.

Schout, Burgomasters, Schepens and Secretary, shall be holden to appear, on the notification of the court Messenger, at all ordinary sessions in the City Hall, precisely at nine o'clock on the ringing of the bell; or at extraordinary sessions at the hour appointed, under a fine as follows:

Firstly, whoever comes half an hour after the bell rings, or the time appointed, (when the court Messenger shall turn the sand box or hour glass,) shall be fined six styvers.

Whoever comes one hour too late, (as before,) twelve styvers.

And whoever is wholly absent, or until the court adjourns, (without having weighty reasons, such as sickness, absence from home, to wit: at Fort Orange, at the south or north,) shall be fined each time forty styvers.

Which imposed fines shall be immediately paid down, without any exception, and collected by another, to be expended or employed in time and circumstance, as by plurality of votes shall be found proper. Thus ordained and concluded, this 16 April, 1655, at the aforesaid meeting in the City Hall at Amsterdam, in New Netherland.

REVOLUTIONARY REMINISCENCES.

On the celebration of Washington's Birthday at Ballston, on the 22d of February, 1827, by a number of old Revolutionary Soldiers, after the regular toasts were drunk, a number of patriotic volunteers were given, among others the names of Paulding, Williams and Van Wart, the captors of Andre, were mentioned in grateful remembrance.

Upon this an old Revolutionary Soldier proposed as a sentiment:

"The memory of Fulmer, Cory and Perkins, who by a most gallant attempt, achieved, at the peril of their own lives, the capture of that daring traitor and spy, Joseph Betts."

The venerable Col. John Ball, of Ballston, president of the day, then rose and begged leave to mention a few facts in relation to Betts and his capture, and as nearly as we can recollect the facts, the substance was as follows:

"During the war of the Revolution, I was an officer in the regiment of New York, commanded by Col. Wynkoop. Being acquainted with Betts, who was a citizen of Ballston, and knowing him to be bold, athletic and intelligent in an uncommon degree, I was desirous of obtaining his services for my country, and succeeded in enlisting him with the command of Sergeant. He was afterwards reduced to the ranks on account of insolence to an officer, who he said had abused him without a cause. Knowing his irritable and determined spirit, and unwilling to lose him, I procured him a Sergeancy in the fleet, commanded by Gen. Arnold, (afterwards the traitor,) on Lake Champlain in '76. Betts was in that desperate fight which took place in the latter part of that campaign, between the British and American fleets on that Lake, and being a skilful seaman, was of signal service during the battle. He fought until every commissioned officer on board his vessel was killed or wounded, and then assumed the command himself, and continued the fight with such reckless courage, that Gen. Waterbury, who was second in command under Arnold, perceiving that the vessel was likely to sink, was obliged to order Betts and the remnant of the crew, on board his own vessel, and having noticed his extraordinary bravery and conduct, he stationed him on the quarter deck by his side, and gave orders through him until the vessel becoming altogether crippled, the crew mostly killed, Gen. Waterbury wounded, and only two officers left, the colors were struck to the enemy.

Gen. Waterbury afterwards told my father that he never saw a man behave with such deliberate desperation as did Betts, and that the shrewdness of his management showed his conduct was not inferior to his courage.

After this action Betts went to Canada, turned traitor to his country, received an ensign's commission in the British army, became a spy, and proved himself a most dangerous and subtle enemy. He was at length arrested, tried and condemned to be hung at West Point.

But the entreaties of his aged parents, and the solicitations of influential Whigs, induced Gen. Washington to pardon him on promise of amendment.

But it was in vain. The generosity of the act only added rancor to his hatred, and the Whigs of this section of the country, especially of Ballston had deep occasion to remember the traitor, and to regret the lenity they had caused to be shown to him.

He recruited soldiers for the King in the very heart of the country—he captured and carried off the most zealous and efficient Whigs, and subjected them to the greatest suffering, and those against whom he bore particular malice, lost their dwellings by fire, or their lives by murder, and all this whilst the British commanders kept him in employ as a most faithful and successful messenger, and cunning and intelligent spy.

No fatigue wearied his resolution, no distance was an obstacle to his purpose, and no danger appalled his courage, no one felt secure, sometimes in the darkness of the night he came by stealth upon us, and sometimes, even in the middle of the day, he was prowling about as if unconscious of danger.

He boldly proclaimed himself a desperado—that he carried his life in his hand, and was as careless of it as he should be of that of others, should they undertake to catch him—that his liberty was guarded by his life, and whoever should undertake to deprive him of it, must expect to mingle their blood with his. And it was well understood that what Bettys said Bettys meant—and as well ascertained that when he came among us to perpetrate his mischief, that he generally brought with him a numerous band of refugees, and concealed them in the neighborhood, to assist him in the accomplishment of his purposes.

Still there were many who were resolved on his apprehension, be their danger what it might, and many ineffectual attempts were made for that purpose, but he eluded all their vigilance until some time in the winter of '81-'82, when a suspicious stranger was observed in the neighborhood on snow shoes, and well armed. Cory and Perkins, on information from Fulmer, immediately armed themselves, together with Fulmer, and proceeded in pursuit. They traced him by a circuitous track to the house of a tory; they consulted a moment, and then by a sudden effort bursting open the door, rushed upon him before he had an opportunity of effecting any resistance. He was at his meal, with his pistols lying on the table, and his rifle resting on his arm; he made an attempt to discharge the latter, but not having taken the precaution to undo the deer skin cover that was over the lock, did not succeed. He was then pinioned so firmly, that to resist was useless, and to escape impossible.

And the notorious Bettys, cheated of all his threats, foiled in his most particular resolution, was obliged to yield himself a tame and quiet prisoner to the enterprise and daring of Fulmer, Cory and Perkins.

He asked leave to smoke, which being granted, he took out his tobacco, and with it some things also, which when undiscovered, as he hoped, he threw into the fire. But Cory saw it, and immediately snatched it out with a handful of coals.

It was a small leaden box, about the eighth of an inch in thickness, and contained a paper in cypher, which they could not read, but was afterwards discovered to be a despatch to the British commander at New-York; and also an order for £30 sterling on the Mayor of New-

York, should the despatch be safely delivered. Bettys begged leave to burn it, but was refused; he offered them a hundred guineas if he might be allowed to do it, but they refused.

He then said, "I am a dead man," but continued to intercede with them to allow him to escape. He made the most liberal offer, a part of which he had present means to make good; but they refused. He was then taken to Albany, there tried, convicted and executed as a spy, and traitor to his country.

And the only reward these daring men ever received for this hazardous achievement was the rifle and pistols of Bettys!!

The conduct of the captors of Andre was noble, but that of the captors of Bettys was both noble and heroic. Andre was a gentleman and without the means of defence; Bettys was fully armed, and known to be a desperado. The capture of the former was by accident—of the latter by enterprise and design. That of the former was without danger—of the latter at the imminent peril of life. Andre was a more important, but perhaps not a more dangerous man than Bettys.

Both tempted their captors with all seducing gold, and both were foiled.

And venerating as I do, the noble achievement of Paulding, Williams and Van Wart, and believing as I do, that their deeds form a commentary on the honest strength of the American character, I cannot withhold my approbation of the sentiments expressed as to the conduct of Fulmer, Cory and Perkins. And I second it with all my heart."

The toast was then drank amidst thunders of applause, and the day was passed without accident in the enjoyment of high and patriotic feelings.

Believing a statement of those inhabitants of Ballston, who were captured during the war, by Joe Bettys, who also had an associate with him in crime, by the name of Walter Myers, would be acceptable, we have procured the following information from one of our aged inhabitants.

In May, 1781, Bettys, who it will be seen, in the above statement, was a great desperado, came into Ballston, and carried off among many others the following persons: Samuel Nash, Joseph Chard, Uri Tracy, and Samuel Patchin; the latter was carried off to Canada. Those taken by Myers were Epenetus White, two men named Bontas, brothers, and John Fulmer. All these were taken and carried off to Canada, suffered the greatest privations, and barely escaped with their lives.

In addition to the above, Bettys did not confine himself to this section of country alone for plunder, but that he made an attempt to take the brave General Schuyler, who was attacked in his own house, near Albany, by a party of Canadians and Tories, headed by Bettys. Three of the General's guard, by the names of Ward, Tubbs, and Jordan, defended the house, until the party became alarmed, and retreated, taking the above persons with them as prisoners. When they were released, this noble, patriotic General, presented each of them with a farm near his residence, Saratoga.

INTERESTING SELECTIONS
DOINGS OF OUR CITY FATHERS
IN EARLY TIMES.

1684, February 1st.—The Mayor and Corporation represent the trade to New Jersey as being much prejudicial to the trade of this City and province. The power of the Corporation to hold a Court of Sessions, is disputed by Governour Dongan; but allowed until his Royal Highness's pleasure is known.

March 7th.—Address of the Mayor and Aldermen to the Governour, about East Jersey. They say that the natural situation of the Island being convenient for trade, the predecessors of his Royal Highness bestowed many privileges, confirmed by Colonel Nichols and successive Governours, which would have been of great benefit, if the unhappy separation of East Jersey had not occurred, which must necessarily divide the trade of this province, as the experience of this year's doth sufficiently demonstrate, goods being furnished to the City without paying the duties due to his Royal Highness, and the interference with the Indian trade, to the great loss of this city. They therefore pray the Governour to intercede with his Royal highness to have East Jersey annexed to the province of New York, "by purchase or otherways," otherwise his Royal Highness will be injured, and New York ruined.

15th.—In Common Council, Mr. Cornelius Steinwick, Mayor, in the thirty sixth year of the reign of his majesty Charles II., ordered—that no manner of servile work be done on the Lord's day; penalty, 10s., and double for each repetition. the masters of public houses are ordered to report all strangers coming to lodge or live with them, and they are forbidden to receive or lodge any person, male or female, suspected or of evil name, under penalty of 10s. That twenty carmen be appointed, and no more; under certain regulations, one of which is, that they do fill up, amend, and repair the breeches in the streets and highways, in and about the city, when required by the Mayor, gratis, and cart the dirt every Saturday in the afternoon out of the streets and lanes, provided the dirt is swept together by the inhabitants. #### ERRATA.

An omission occurs in the list of Committees. The Committees on Charity and Alms House was, by a resolution passed both Boards and approved by the Mayor, Dec. 28, 1847, made a Joint Committee, and should therefore read "Joint Committee on Charity and Alms House."

For "Frederick L. Kohler," read "Frederick D. Kohler."
